REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is supplementary to examiner's statement of reasons for allowance in response to the IDS filed November 27, 2006: First, a reiteration that claims 1-8, 11, 12, 15 and 16 are allowable for the reasons stated on page 2 of the Notice of Allowance action of November 1, 2006 and page 5 of Office Action of June 12, 2006 hold true. However, statements by the Office Action of the State Intellectual Property Office of People's Republic of China include, in particular, allegations that referred claims 10 and 12 do not have inventiveness under Article 22(3) of the Chinese Patent Law, regarding the features of an off circuit for automatically turning the light-emitting element off at a predetermined time and the light unit being disposed within the protective space surrounded by the handle grip and the body and at a position below the body and above the trigger, as being obvious for those skilled in the art to obtain the technical solutions of preventing energy waste and facilitating illumination of the light unit, respectively, of these claims by combining at least the reference 1 (CN2210755Y) or reference 2 (CN2365021Y) with the customary practice in the art, and that these features do not produce unexpected technical effect. These referred claims 10 and 12 are most similar to present claims 11 and 15, respectively. Such allegations based on customary practice in the art are strongly refuted as being baseless without any reference or evidence or proper motivation that suggests the claimed off circuit and claimed disposition of the light unit within the protective space. Furthermore, present claim 15 further claims the protective space to be immediately above the trigger, not suggested by the prior art of record nor customary practice in the art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
